

ELIGIBILITY All residents of the Island of Hawai'i are eligible to participate. All works must be original (no prints or giclées please) and must not have been previously shown in any other exhibition, gallery, or website. Artwork in any medium or combination of media is welcome.

SUBJECT The main subject(s) of your piece(s) must be a species native to the Island of Hawai'i. All species found from ridge to reef on the island are acceptable. Artwork featuring non-native species, including Polynesian introductions, will not be accepted. Cultural or human components in the piece are acceptable as long as they complement the major theme of native species.

SUBMISSION AND ENTRY FEES Fill out an entry form (available online or at Wailoa Arts and Cultural Center) and drop it off with your artwork at the Wailoa Arts and Cultural Center in Hilo from 12 pm - 7 pm on Friday, October 26. Artists may enter more than one piece. Entry fees are $10 per piece for adults, free for youth (under 18). Fees are non-refundable.

ALL ART must be ready for hanging or installation, including attaching wire for framed pieces. Matted work without frames will not be accepted.

SELECTION Jurying will occur on Saturday, October 27. Artwork may not be selected despite adherence to rules. Pieces not selected for exhibition will be available for pick up at Wailoa Arts and Cultural Center from 2 pm -4pm on Saturday, October 27.

ENTRY DIVISIONS There are four age divisions for entry: adult, elementary school (grades K-5), middle school (grades 6-8), and high school (grades 9-12). Students do not need to be affiliated with a school to enter. Class or group entries are also available for adults and youth.

SALES All selected adult entries are required to be for sale, youth entries are not required for sale. If artwork is sold during the exhibition, 60% goes to the artist, 10% is donated to the Wailoa Arts and Cultural Center, and 30% will go toward environmental education. Minimum sale price for artwork is $20.

OPENING & EXHIBITION The exhibition will run November 2 - November 29 at the Wailoa Arts and Cultural Center in Hilo. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded at a reception on November 2.

EDUCATION AND INFORMATION A variety of programs for adults and youth will be offered leading up to and during the exhibition. Contact Emily Leucht at 'Imi Pono no ka 'Aina for more information:
